

Vehicles Examples in the Point-Cloud

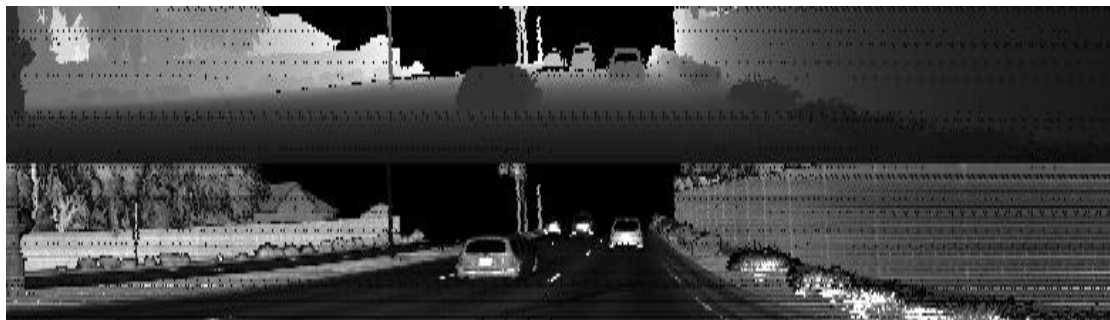

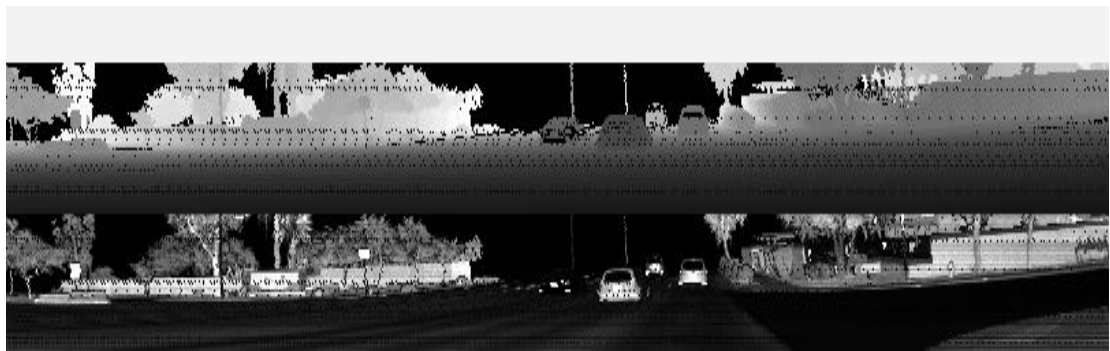

Vehicle Features

The rear-bumper and license plate are the most common features for vehicles in front of our car, and the rear window can also be a feature because it is transparent in some vehicles. Conversely, for vehicles behind our car, the front-bumper and license plate are the most common features.

Range Image Validation

The high reflection from the rear bumper and license plate is clearly visible in the intensity image.

Objects Detection in BEV & Labels in Camera

